

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair refused to broadcast the names and photographs of the soldiers who have died in Iraq. Their bias is clear enough.

If they require their stations to broadcast "Stolen Honor" then equal time should be given to Michael Moore's "Fahrenheit 9/11" or to "Going Upriver."